

Richard Tangye

Richard Tangye is the Executive Director of CIS. Richard has a degree in Economics and Politics from Cambridge University and, after a brief spell teaching in Papua New Guinea, joined the world of business. After working in North America for ten years, he then spent seventeen years with Jardine Matheson in Asia where, in addition to his business responsibilities, he has actively participated in school governance, new school building and advisory bodies on education. He has been Board Chair at the British International School in Jakarta, Taipei European School in Taiwan, and South Island School in Hong Kong. In this latter location he was a member of the Management Committee of the English Schools' Foundation, and Chair of the Teachers' Pay Review Committee. Richard joined CIS in 2003.
